The Election Commissioner, Bangalore No Gen 6 dated 28th April '41 States that As the copies of election petitions and notices have to be issued to petitioners and respondents, a sum of Rs 100/- may be allotted.

According to Rules 180 and 184 of R A & L C Rules respectively, a copy of the petition has to be served on each respondent. Since the copies of election petitions have to be sent by registered post, certain expenditure will have to be incurred for postage and the Election Commr has raised the issue as to who has to bear it. Even if the petitioner has to pay, the notices to respondents have to be served only after they are served on the petitioners. A delay of about a fortnight is feared.

It is for orders whether the expenditure on postage may be treated as Costs of the Petition and the same fixed on the petitioner.

Regarding the sum of Rs 100/- necessary for postal expenses and referred to in last para in PwD, it seems
